Dr. Horace Furumoto Innovations Professional Development Young Investigator Award Nomination

This award was established in 2007 by Candela Corporation, Cynosure, and DEKA to recognize and encourage the development of future technology innovators and leaders. It is given in memory of the genius, leadership, and commitment of Dr. Horace Furumoto. This award may be given to either ASLMS members or non-members, but it is a requirement that nominations be made by ASLMS members only. The award recipient will receive a plaque and $4,500 (to be used to further his/her professional development) at the Annual Conference and will be required to present a brief lecture during the Plenary Session at the conference highlighting their accomplishments.

The candidate must meet the following criteria in order to be considered for this award:

- 1) Early stage career and/or professional development (up to 15 years in the field of lasers and related technologies in health care)
- 2) Non-clinical professionals, particularly those who work in industry, are especially encouraged and will receive special consideration
- 3) Display a potential for independent contribution and innovation
- 4) Good verbal communication skills to allow for an informative appropriate lecture

Email, fax, or mail completed form to ASLMS.
